HARMONY DAY ACTIVITIES NEXT MONDAY

Harmony Day, 21st March, is an international event recognizing and celebrating all diverse cultures locally, nationally and around the world. Sunset State School will be holding a special event on Monday 1:50pm-2:30pm, hosting games and activities from many cultures: including international food, country and world displays, chopstick games, Indigenous art and more. All family and community members are welcome to attend and help celebrate the amazing diversity within our community.

It would be extremely beneficial to inform your child of your cultural heritage, going back as far as you know. The aim is to share with your child that although we are Australian, we do have roots all over the world. You will find that your child will show a genuine interest in where they come from and would be excited to share their story with their peers.

We hope to see you there.

Jarred [Year]

Jarred is the main character out of Deltora Quest. Jarred is a little boy that tries to break the palace rules. He is the future king's best friend. Jarred grew up in the palace with the palace's future king Endon and he tried to be a helpful friend to Endon. He tried to escape the palace gates.

Jarred is a curious little boy. It happens when he was reading the book of the palace rules in Deltora's palace library. He found himself in a big dangerment against the palace guards and the shadow lord.

The palace guards were trying to kill Jarred because Jarred tried to beak the palace rules and tried to escape the palace gates.

Jarred told Endon to wear the belt before something dangerous happened in Deltora's palace and the village.

The village thought why Jarred became more responsible for the belt of Deltora palace.

Jarred

Jarred is a main character of Deltora Quset from a book written by Emily Rodda. Jarred is a boy that is from the palace and has a friend named Endon. He tries to help him but Endon doesn't need help. He needs the belt of Dark Shadow Lord.

Jarred is impatient, friendly and brave because he is impatient that he could not wait to get his hair plaited. Endon got his hair plaited first that's why Jarred was impatient. He was in a rush. He is friendly by being helpful and by helping his friend Endon. He is brave by breaking the rules and by saving his friends life. He saved his friends life by sneaking into the library and from the guards to protect Endon.

He found out about the rules so he had to leave the palace. Endon didn't know that he was leaving the palace. Jarred had to leave from the rules.

Other people think that Jarred is impatient, friendly and brave. He breaks the rules to save Endon's life before they are in trouble.

Jarred now has changed because he now has a job and has a family. He now has a house.

TASHAE SMITH

JARRED

Jarred is the main character out of the book Deltora Quest, The Forest of Silence. Jarred is a lonely boy and he only has Endon the future king as a friend. He is a curious, impatient and heroic boy.

Jarred is a boy who likes to take risks, and break the palace rules and is determined.

Jarred never gives up. "After hours of searching Jarred finally found a book that might help him." The reason why he is a rule breaker is because he tried to tell Endon to break the palace rules.

Jarred had escaped Del because the guards were trying to catch him and he thought they were going to kill him. As he was running away from the guards he ends up outside the palace gates.

Jarred

Jarred is shown as a helpful boy because he helps his friend Endon by being by his side. Jarred is a curious boy because he found out about the rules of Del. He sometimes worries about Endon when there apart.

Jarred has become more responsible and mature. He has become a blacksmith and a dad. He is now living in another village with his wife and son. His son is sixteen and his wife is named Anna.

Year 5B have been doing some wonderful writing this week. Special thanks to Shadiamond, Tashae, Trivarn and Ceara for sharing their work!

JARRED

WHO JARRED IS NOW AND BEFORE HE LIVED IN THE PALACE

Jarred is a kid that lives in a beautiful place called Deltora. He's friends with a young prince named Endon. Jarred is a rule breaker, he is also a very important boy and he is strong and brave for a lovely stranded boy.

The author has chosen Jarred to be a helpful boy, impatient and curious. Jarred is shown as impatient in the book "They sat Endon patiently and Jarred not so patiently while their long hair was plaited and twisted with golden cord, according to the rules."

Jarred left the palace because the guards were chasing after him because they thought Jarred was going to kill Endon. Jarred left (escaped) the pretty palace his heavy feet thudding towards the chapel. He ran like the wind so fast. He jumped and crawled throu the big bushes."

The author has also has chosen Jarred to be serious, nervous and brave because he went to go and leave the palace. Jarred looked for the belt and the gems for a long time at the end he had found all of the seven gems and saved Deltora.

JARRED

Now Jarred has a job for the blacksmith in the city of Del. Jarred now has a wife named Anna and a good and brave son who's name is Lelf and he is six-teen years old. He now lives in the big pretty city with his beautiful family. He now has a house in the pretty city of Deltora which is now where he lives.
