Year 3 Mount Isa Underground Hospital and Museum excursion

Last Friday, the Year 3's visited the Mount Isa Underground Hospital and Museum as part of our geography unit about a significant place in Mount Isa. We chose the underground hospital due to its historical and educational value.

The hospital was built in 1942 after Darwin was bombed in WWII. Citizens were worried that Mount Isa will also come under attack so it was made to house the patients and babies in an emergency situation. Students had to justify why the underground hospital and museum was significant to Mount Isa and how it can be protected. The students represented the school perfectly with good manners and posing interesting questions to the volunteers at the site.
